Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet Entertain in the Richard T. Wilson Villa With Large Casino Added

Great Fireworks Display

Two Hundred Guests Attend; Brilliant Program Outlined by Summer Colony

Special Disputch to The Tribune NEWPORT, R. I., July 3.—The ball let at the Richard T. Wilson villa ered pavilion in the rear of the villa wees and oak leaves.

The grounds were illuminated with bandreds of varicolored electric lights and a display of fireworks following the

s. Arthur Scott Burden, Mr.
Burke Roche, Mrs. Henry P.
Mr. J. Gorden Deuglas, Mr
Astor. Mrs. Henry G. Gray,
inald Finche, Mr. Oliver Perin,

Mrs. Robert Goelet

She gave the first large dance of the season at Newport last night. The entertainment was to have taken place to-night, but was advanced a day, as many of the men invited are leaving the resort to-night and returning to town.

of their daughter, Miss Katharine Ar-matage, to Mr. Louis Jackson Van Orden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Van Orden, of Pompton Lake, N. J., and New York

Barney and Mr. George At Senate Women's Picnic

and Mrs. Jerome H. Bonaparte a luncheon to-day, among their s being Count and Countess de Mr. and Mrs. Robert Goelet, and Mrs. Fellowes Davis, Mr. and the Tribune's Washington Burran The Tribune's Washington Burran and Mrs. Works Are Hosts

WASHINGTON, July 3.-Mrs. Cool-

'Burn Diaries Unread,'

Is Order in Field Will

The will of Virginia Hamersley Field, widow of Cortlandt de Peyster Field, of Fieldhome, Yorktown, was filed for probate yesterdhy with Surrogate George A. Slater, in White Plains. The

my aunt Mary Hooker, my sisters

The greater part of the estate, including all real estate in the and a bequest of $200,000 in trust

Administrator The Tribune Fresh Air Fund Caused His Defeat. Of Estate Asked

By Croker's Son Write Your Check on the Day Sacred to Patriots, and Help Americanize These Youngsters Who Are the Citizens of To-morrow!

many Chief Has Been Filed, Richard Says Appointment | Are you patriotic? Would Serve Best Interests Phon't be rhetorical. Don't be proved; the question is

But suppose you were Johnny of the Seeks to Continue Suits ten

Believes Father Left a Final Testament and Widow [ar Has It In Her Possession

As No Will of Former Tam-

The appointment of a temporary adainistrator for the estate of the late froze day in a petition presented to Surroit was a place where dirt and uginess held supreme and constant sear, where children had no real choice to play and often went hungry to bed.

which is now owing to the petitioner from the estate.

It is further stated by Croker in the petition that after the death of his father Frederick R. Ryan, of the law firm of McCoombs & Eyan, of 25 Broad way, counsel for the petitioner, took up with attorneys representing his father in Ireland and England, and with the widow's (Bula E. Croker) attorney, the states that he received to sale faction, and only promises from Mr. Nathan to "take up hasty action, as the matter is in such shape there will be no necessity for action."

The Fluoron River.

"O.o.o.oh, girls, the Hudson River!"

"And Subic fairly gaped with wonder as she said it.

"Looka! A boat! A boat!"

"The Fluoron River."

"O.o.o.oh, girls, the Hudson River!"

"And soid it.

"Looka! A boat! A boat!"

"The Fluoron River."

"O.o.o.oh, girls, the Hudson River!"

"The Fluoron River."

"The Fl

The state of the s

Political "Poison" McCumber Declares

In Letter to Campaign Manager N. D. Senator Says 2 Months Was Too Short miros of to Overcome Combine

WASHINGTON. July 3. Political "poison," which has been circulated for more than two years in North Unkota, is the cause of the defeat of Senator McCumber, according to his own version of the matter.

In a letter to-day, in which he expressed his gratifude to one of his campaign managers. R. J. Hughes, of Fargo, Senator McCumber expressed his views:

"Boring the last two months," the Senator wrote, "you have conducted a most strenuous campaign in my behalf, in the conduct of that campaign you have at all times maintained the high est standard of political ethics four course has been straightforward and nanorable and you have persistently avoided any character of abuse of the college. It has been sown headeast for more than the point of the course.

"These two months were too short a period to overcome the poison that LSTA At Atlanta the high head here sown headeast for more

"These two months were too short a period to overcome the poison that had been sown broadcast for more than two years or is meet the bit partisan combination which had been made against me on the one side and the Nonnartisan organization which so leysily apported my apponent. I know that you and my other good friends did everything within your power to bring about my isomination, but with my lines broken and with a united organization supporting my opponent the odds were too great for you to overcome.

Ex-Intercollegiate Golf Champion Dies in N. J.

After Heart Attack Louis Fintard Bayard, who was inercologiate golf champion in 1898-99 and 1900, died late Sunday at the brange Memorial Hospital. His death name suddenly after a heart attack arly in the evening at his home in Short Hills, N. J. Bayerd is survived by his wife, not STrond as Miss Lucy Forbes Bullerd, and not strong Portard Bayers and Strong Portard Bayers

James M. Beck Guest Of High French Officials OSASCH

DEATHS

Birth, Engagement, Marriage, ROWLAND on Sanda

Frank The Tribune & Washington Bureau | HOLLANDER

1898 to 1900, Expires MILLER

CEMETERIES THE WOODLAWN CEMETERY

UNDERTAKERS

THE HOME FUNERAL.

Broadway at 66th St

L. P. Bayard, Title Holder from

BURNS—On Friday, June 15, 1322 tillian Hurns. Faneral from the excellence of ter brother, 482 Court at three kirs on Turades, at $139 a. m. introduct Calvary Commeters.

Conducted inexpensively
Call Columbus $200
When Death Occurs
FRANKE CAMPBELL "The Juneral Church"...